Sub :- Objection for transferring Room No: 20,
B.D.D. Chawl, No: 108, Worli, Mumbai-18.

24-12-08
Sir,

Under the Instructions and Informations of my client Mr. Nagabhushan Chandramohan Namala, residing at 108/20, B.D.D. Chawl, Worli, Mumbai- 400 018. I have to address you as under :

1. My Client says that, he is the son of Shri: Chandramohan
Y. Namala and Smt: Limbai C. Namala.

2. My Client further says that, the Tenancy of the above said Room stands in the name of Smt: Bhumabai Yellayya Namala who is sick and bedridden and not in a position to sign and understand anything.

3. My Client says that, His Father had applied for the transfer of the said Room in the name of Smt:Laxmibai, who is also IInd wife of my clients father without the consent and permission from my client or his mother, for which my client got strong OBJECTION . My client further says that he and his mother got equal right,title and interest on the above said Room. No :20, and my client being the Legally Wedded wife's son is entitled to claim equal rights on the said Room. My client says that, with malafied Intension, my clients father had applied for the transfer of the above said room, "Just to deny my client's legal rights".
4. My client says that, My client request you to not to transfer the tenancy of the above said room to anybody and the statusqua will be maintained, failing which my client is consterned to adopt legal proceedings against to you and the said transferee, if any. At your entire risk as to Costs and Consequences, which please note.

Thanking you .

As per my Instructions.

N. Nagabhushan
(Mr. Nagabhushan C . Namala)

Yours faithfully,

Pellam
